

Tiger Shroff Shot At In Mumbai’s Juhu, 3 Bike-Borne Suspects On The Run

Actor Tiger Shroff was allegedly targeted in a firing incident in Mumbai’s Juhu after three unidentified men arrived on a motorcycle and opened fire at Pushpa Park.

While initial reports suggested that Shroff and two others had been injured, Mumbai Police later clarified that the actor was safe and had not sustained any gunshot injuries. Shroff’s driver and an autorickshaw driver were reportedly injured in the incident.

Meanwhile, a social media post purportedly by gangster Anil Pandit has surfaced, allegedly claiming responsibility for the firing on behalf of the Lawrence Bishnoi gang.

Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis spoke with Mumbai Police Commissioner Deven Bharati to enquire about the firing incident and directed him to launch an investigation and take strict action against those responsible. As many as 15 teams have been formed to nab the accused.

The incident also triggered a political row, with Congress leader Sachin Sawant questioning the state of law and order in Mumbai and accusing the Maharashtra government of failing to curb criminal activity.

Reacting to the incident, Sawant wrote on X, “The news of a shooting at actor Tiger Shroff’s car is utterly shocking. What’s exactly going on in Mumbai? The murder of Baba Siddique, a shooting at Salman Khan’s house, threats to numerous actors and producers... Law and order in Mumbai has gone completely haywire.”

He further alleged that the city was witnessing a breakdown of law and order, saying, “It’s not just a lack of law and order; it’s as if utter chaos has taken hold. The Chief Minister has proven to be a total failure!”

Comparing the situation in Maharashtra with Bihar, Sawant added, “We’d reached the point of saying ‘Maharashtra has become Bihar’; but now, we’ve come to the stage where we’re saying ‘even Bihar is better.’ Strongest condemnation of the government that’s pushing Mumbai into the clutches of criminals!”

Congress MP Varsha Gaikwad said the incident once again raises serious questions about the deteriorating law and order situation in Mumbai.

Aamir Khan Meets Raj Thackeray Amid Imran Khan’s Deportation Notice Row

Aamir Khan met Maharashtra Navnirman Sena chief Raj Thackeray at his Mumbai residence, Shivtirth, amid the ongoing controversy involving his nephew Imran Khan. The meeting has drawn attention because of its timing, though neither Aamir nor Raj Thackeray has said what was discussed.

According to reports, Aamir was accompanied by his wife, Gauri Spratt, during the visit. While the two have met on earlier occasions and are known to share a cordial equation, the latest meeting comes at a time when Imran Khan is challenging a notice issued to him by Mumbai’s Foreigners Regional Registration Office.

The notice reportedly directs Imran to leave India by October 28, 2026.

Photographs of Aamir and Raj

Thackeray meeting each other have surfaced on social media in the past, and their association is not new. However, the timing of Sunday’s visit has led to speculation over whether Imran Khan’s case came up during the conversation.

There is no confirmation of that so far.

Neither Aamir nor Raj Thackeray has issued a statement linking their meeting to Imran’s legal matter. Reports have also not disclosed any details about what was discussed at Shivtirth.

The speculation has also been fuelled by Raj Thackeray’s own criticism of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar, against whom the protest attended by Imran and his girlfriend Lekha Washington was organised.

Imran has reportedly approached the Bombay High Court against the FRRO notice asking him to leave India.

The development came after he and Lekha Washington participated in a protest organised by Citizens for Justice and Peace at Mumbai’s August Kranti Maidan on October 10.

Both Imran and Lekha were detained during the protest.

The demonstration had been organised against Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar. Imran’s participation subsequently drew political attention, with former BJP MP Kirit Somaiya approaching the Mumbai Police and seeking an inquiry into the actor’s presence at the protest.

The issue escalated further after Imran reportedly received the FRRO notice directing him to leave India by October 28.

Box Office Collection: Ajay Devgn’s Film Earns Rs 5 Cr, Worldwide Total Nears Rs 529 Cr

Ajay Devgn’s Drishyam 3: The Conclusion is doing extremely well at the ticket windows. The crime thriller witnessed a sharp rise of 61.3 per cent in its collection on the third Saturday, earning Rs 3.10 crore. Worldwide, Drishyam 3 has minted Rs 528.77 crore gross.

Drishyam 3: The Conclusion collected Rs 5 crore in India net on Day 16, Saturday, October 17, across 4,137 shows. According to Sacnilk, the film saw a 61.3% jump from Friday’s Rs 3.10 crore. Its India net collection now stands at Rs 341.10 crore, while its worldwide gross has reached Rs 528.77 crore, including Rs 120 crore from overseas markets.

The film recorded an overall occupancy of 35.52% across Hindi 2D screenings on Saturday. Night shows saw the highest occupancy at 42.15%, followed by evening shows at 35.31%. The film also recorded 224,413 footfalls on Day 16, taking its total footfalls to over 1.45 crore.

Vijay Salgaonkar has managed to keep his family safe and stay ahead of the police in the first two films. But in Drishyam 3: The Conclusion, his past threatens to catch up with him once again. The third instalment follows Vijay as he tries to protect the secrets he has worked so hard to hide. With his carefully planned moves facing another test, the film is expected to bring his story to its final chapter.

The Hindi film is not a direct remake of Mohanlal’s upcoming Malayalam film Drishyam 3. While both films continue the popular franchise, they will have different storylines. The Hindi version will tell an original story centred on Vijay Salgaonkar. The film stars Ajay Devgn, Jaideep Ahlawat, Tabu, Shriya Saran, Rajat Kapoor, Prakash Raj, Ishita Dutta and Mrunal Jadhav.

News18 Showsha gave Drishyam 3 a 3-star rating. “Drishyam 3: The Conclusion is a gripping and fast-paced thriller that understands the appeal of its franchise. It keeps you invested and benefits from strong performances, particularly from Ajay Devgn, Jaideep Ahlawat, Prakash Raj and Kamlesh Sawant. However, the film’s biggest strength is also its weakness. It is not a bad film but it sticks closely to the Drishyam formula, making it familiar. It is not a grand conclusion that the franchise deserved,” a part of our review reads.

Prabhas’ Spirit Gets New Release Date; Sandeep Reddy Vanga Locks Diwali 2027 Release

Prabhas and Sandeep Reddy Vanga’s much-awaited Spirit has a new release date. The filmmaker announced on Sunday that the action drama will now arrive in theatres worldwide on October 29, 2027, positioning it as a major Diwali release.

Along with the announcement, Vanga unveiled a new poster featuring Prabhas in a rugged avatar. The actor is seen in close-up, wearing a dark cap and sporting a heavy beard, with most of his face kept partly in shadow.

Spirit had previously been scheduled to hit theatres on March 5, 2027. Earlier this week, however, reports suggested that the film was likely to vacate the date as T-Series’ Khosla Ka Ghosla 2 had also been lined up for the same day.

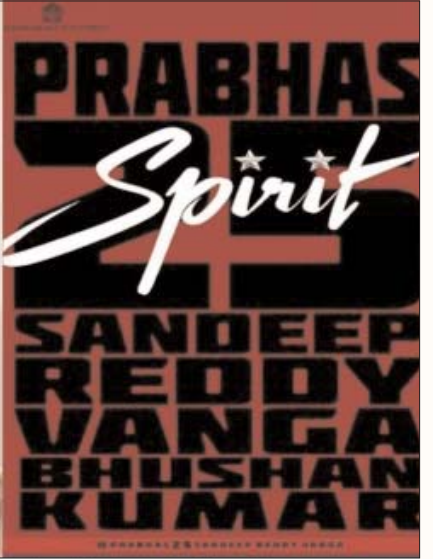

The speculation has now ended with Vanga officially locking October 29, 2027, for the Prabhas-starrer.

Before revealing the date, the director teased fans by announcing that a new poster featuring “the man behind the shades” was on the way. Minutes later, he dropped Prabhas’ fresh look along with the worldwide release date.

The film marks the first collaboration between Prabhas and Vanga, who last directed Ranbir Kapoor in Animal.

The new date also sets up the possibility of a major box-office clash during Diwali 2027.

Nitesh Tiwari’s Ramayana Part 2, starring Ranbir Kapoor, Sai Pallavi and Yash, has also been announced for the Diwali 2027 period. With Spirit now dated for October 29, the two big-ticket films could arrive around the same festive window unless either schedule changes closer to release.

The first part of Ramayana is slated to release on November 5, 2026, while its concluding instalment has been planned for the following Diwali.

Spirit is being mounted as an action drama, with Prabhas playing a police officer. Triptii Dimri stars opposite him, while Vivek Oberoi and Prakash Raj are also part of the cast.

Vanga had earlier said that the team had completed a 40-day shooting schedule and still had around 65 days of filming left at that stage. At the time, he had maintained that the film was on track for its earlier March 2027 release.

The newly announced Diwali date gives the makers a substantially longer runway before release.

Backed by T-Series and Vanga Pictures, Spirit remains one of Prabhas’ major upcoming projects. With the latest poster now out and the release date officially locked, the film is set to arrive worldwide on October 29, 2027, during the Diwali festive period.
